

Reflections on the road

“Four old folks”

What are they doing?
Missing the old good days?

How do I know the love of life is not a delusion; and that the dislike of death is not like a child that is lost and does not know the way home ?

Taoism : Chuang-Tsu

Only Faith in a life after death, in a brighter world where dear ones will meet again – only that and the measured tramp of time can give consolation.

Winston Churchill
